

Fantasy

Chorus:

And if I called you, would you come to me
Like a fantasy, would you walk with me, would you?
She loves singing and she dances in the rain
When she's with me all the words come easily
Her words are sweeter than any fresh cut sugarcane
When she whispers them for no one else but me

CHORUS

She comes to me when I'm lying deep in dream
And I dream so sweet when she sings me her song
But it breaks me, you know it makes me want to scream
Every time she leaves me lonely for too long (she leaves me lonely)

CHORUS

Whisper words: I will listen. Sing to me soft as satin
Hum like waves in summer storms. Please just stay here beside me
Never leave me alone

CHORUS

She prowls my bedroom like a tigress in a cage
And I know she will be breaking free someday
She gives me meaning like a pen gives to a page
And I lose myself every time she goes away
